FIGHT BOUTS DISCONTINUED ENLARGE HALL

No More Cards Will Be Staged For Sixty Days

Wednesday night's fight card at the American Legion Hall will be the last program to be held for at least two months. The reason is that the local post wishes to remodel their building, making it larger and the seats more comfortable for the fight fans. When the work on the building is finished the fights will be resumed and the officials of the post promise some real classy fighters.

Wednesday's card was not up to standard, owing to much substituting. Several of the fighters billed on the program failed to appear and those substituted failed to entirely please the crowd.

In the first preliminary Johnny Lyle, of San Pedro, substituted for "Sailor" Le Bars, and received the decision over "Sailor" Murphy on points.

The second bout, between Joe Kelly and Mike Gibbons, started out fast and furious and the crowd settled down to witness a good bout. Their anxiety was soon over as Kelly received the decision by the knockout route in the second round. Both boys fought a real battle, but Kelly was too much for Gibbons, who was not exactly counted out by Referee Tom Fury. However, as the referee saw it he called the fight over for fear of a broken jaw for Gibbons.

Eddie West and Young Stanley substituted for "Red" Matthews, who failed to appear, received even honors at the end of their bout.

The fourth bout, between Billy Burk of the East and Micky Rollinson of local fame, was declared a no contest by Referee Tom Fury in the third round. Fury claimed the boys were not fighting and gave his decision as he saw it from the ring.

The main event between George Lamson and Jimmy Dimes, who was substituted for "Sailor" Ted Snyder, was declared a draw. This fight was very tame and it is hoped that if these boys tangle again in Torrance they will do some real punching and not so much wrestling.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TORRANCE

Dr. Harper will preach Sunday, May 13. On Friday evening, May 11, there will be a 6:00 o'clock dinner served in Fellowship Hall, after which a business meeting will be held. There are matters of vital importance to be taken up and a full attendance of members is desired.

With their new home on Susana street about ready for occupancy, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnston have sold their property on Carson street to Mr. Johnston's brother, Verne Johnston, of South Eshelman street, Lomita.

Miss Virginia Watson of Andree street will entertain the young people of the Christian Endeavor Society at a "childhood party" this evening. The guests will dress up just like their kid brothers and sisters, and a jolly time is anticipated.

TOMKINS WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, of Gramercy avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Thursday, when the daughter of the house, Miss Sara-belle Tomkins, and John Robert Richhart were married by Rev. James Morris in the presence of about forty members of the families of bride and groom. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tomkins. The bride and matron of honor made a charming picture, the one in white crepe de chine with veil and orange blossoms, and bouquet of pink roses, the other in pink crepe de chine, with white roses. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by L. J. Acree, and Miss Wona Whimmer, of Long Beach, a cousin of the bride, sang "Oh, Promise Me." A prettily decorated wedding cake was a feature of the refreshments served. The happy couple left on the H. F. Alexander for a trip that will include visits to San Francisco, Napa, Sacramento and Santa Clara. On their return they will stay at the Tomkins' home until their new home on Anapola avenue is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Richhart received many beautiful gifts.

BUSINESS MEN MEET

The Business Men's Association of Torrance held its regular monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms May 3, and considered matters needing attention for the welfare of their businesses.

Secretary Gadeky was instructed to write a letter to the city trustees in the matter of Torrance securing a lower light and gas rate; the city trustees to have their committee correspond with the State Railroad Commission.

The secretary was also instructed to send a letter to the Western Union Telegraph Company and the telephone company, asking them to kindly make "haste" in getting their new offices installed in Torrance.

SOCIAL MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Industrial Relations Club held its regular business meeting in Catholic Hall, Wednesday evening and announced that on next Wednesday evening, May 16, a social meeting would be held.

The main speaker of this week's meeting was Rex Goodcell, internal revenue collector, who chose the subject of taxation and income tax. The speaker's remarks were interesting as well as educational on these subjects and he was given great applause as he concluded.

A dinner was served by Chef Joe Stone after the business and program of the evening was finished.

After rehearsal at the home of Mrs. H. O. Hansen of Carson street, Wednesday evening, the choir of Central church enjoyed a social hour, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Secret of Success

Form the habit of saving and you will succeed, advise some, while others insist that one of the real secrets of success lies in "Not making the same mistake twice."

How often do we see people making the mistake of mistakes, over and over—Not Saving.

It is up to you to profit by their mistakes, so that when the candle of life burns low and your earning power is diminished, it will not be said of you that you did not save.
